Rheumatism of Twenty Years Standing, Relieved by Kirk's Remedy.

I have had rheumatesm for twenty Saulsbury, Tenn., and further that it was necessary for someone to nelp serve my meals at the table. My hands were drawn to the extent hat I could not use them to any advantage. I have tried a number of medicines and nearly every one that was recommended for rheumatism. I ried a bottle of Kirk's Rheumatic Remedy and received some relief This was encouraging therefore I continued taking it and now I have used a number of bottles of this remedy. While I could not consider myself cured, Kirk's Rheumatic Reme dy is the only medicine that I have taken that gave me immediate cellef. If anybody secures a bottle of this medicine before the rheumatism refs a hold on them, as it did on me, am sure that you will have no more rouble with the pair. I can truth-ully say that I have been benefited rom taking this medicine, whereas, would have been suffering from the dreadful pains. I can gladly recom nend it to anyone who is suffering from rheomatism."

and Univarian. Machine by two denominations—Congregational The group of Pilgrims who came on the Mayflower were largely Calvinists in theology, but decidedly Congregationalists in church polity In September, 1800, the Calvinists, numbering 18 men and 35 women, withdraw from the First Parish Church; and two years later they organized the "Church of the Pilgrimage."

Those who remained were largely Armenian in theology, and under the preaching of James Kendall, the church became Unitarian. Those who remained were largely Arminian in the logy, and under that was founded by the Pilgrims who landed at Plymouth in 1626.

Noth have remained true to the "Fairly of Our Fathers," in allowing no our side sutherity to come between the individual and his Gel. Both deseminations are represented in Memphis. The Congregational Church is a steel at the Corner of Watkins and Eastmoreland. From Robert George is its minister. The Unitarian Church is temporarily building ser less in the Majestic Theater 145 ft. Main Street. William by Clark is its runister.

Both are cellbrating the three hundredth anniversary of the lang-ag of the blgring in appropriate pervices. Tomorro Mr. Clark will speak at the Unita ian services in the PUR'TANK, "I THE PILGRIM FA"HERS, AND SONS OF THE
